

Notice of “Knowledge Test for Specified Domestic Futures Product Trader Suitability”

“Knowledge Test for Specified Domestic Futures Product Trader Suitability” system is now officially available(www.cfachina.org/testcenter/). The system provides two answering pages in both Chinese and English. Please select the appropriate language to take the test.

When evaluating the suitability of potential investors, account-opening institutions should test their basic knowledges of the specified futures products, the exchange trading rules and other contents to be mastered. Also, the institutions should check and archive the investors’ identity and test results according to the requirements of the exchange.

Please refer to the relevant documents in the "Test Instructions" column of the test platform for details of the sample questions and system operation instructions in both Chinese and English. Please study the above materials carefully and feedback the relevant questions in time to ensure the smooth operation of knowledge testing.
