

Notice of “Knowledge Test of Crude Oil Futures”

“Knowledge Test of Crude Oil Futures” system will be officially available on 19th June (www.cfachina.org/testcenter/). The system provides two answering pages in both Chinese and English. Please select the appropriate language to take the test.

When evaluating the suitability of potential investors, account-opening institutions should test their basic knowledges of crude oil futures, exchange trading rules and other contents to be mastered. Also, the institutions should check and archive the investors’ identity and test results according to the requirements of the exchange.

Please refer to the relevant documents on the test platform for details of the system operation instructions in both Chinese and English. Please study the above materials carefully and feedback the relevant questions in time to ensure the smooth operation of knowledge testing.
